Authorization for Extended-Stay Resident Parking

- Overnight vehicle storage in CarParks in excess of 72 hours is prohibited, unless approved by the parking manager.
- Downtown residents with a Promenade Parking Permit or City Hang Tag are authorized to park in excess of 72 hours in specified areas within the CarPark assigned by the parking manager. Parking in other unauthorized locations may result in a parking citation and/or towing.
- The Promenade Parking Permit sticker must be displayed on the left side of the rear window. The Parking Permit is provided by Apartment Property Manager. Parking Permits are non-transferable and only for use by the authorized tenant.
- The City Hang Tag shall be attached to the rear-view mirror, with the printed side facing the front of the vehicle or placed on the dashboard in the vicinity of the rear-view mirror.
- Ken George, the Parking Manager, can be reached at 714-520-0710.
